About this edition

Institutional Profile

An updated public reference linked to the authoritative live website.

This revised reference explains the Council's public operating approach as of 4 November 2026. It is not a legal amendment, appointment instrument, government accreditation, audit certification, or a replacement for an independently authenticated source. Earlier digitally signed files remain available as historical editions.

SECTION 01

Identity and mandate

MYCDIC is a civil-society council focused on youth participation, diplomacy-related learning and international cooperation. Its activity is distinct from the powers and legal functions of governments, embassies and public agencies.

- The Presidency defines strategic direction; offices coordinate implementation within their approved mandates.
- The Council works with institutions and civil-society partners through documented cooperation.
- Public claims should be grounded in published records and verifiable appointments.

SECTION 02

Institutional architecture

The public structure links the Presidency, General Secretariat, Rabat National Office, Brussels International Office and oversight, advisory and honorary functions.

- The member registry supports current roles and appointments.
- Programme teams coordinate substantive activities and reporting.
- Office pages show only public information approved for publication.

SECTION 03

Working priorities

The Council's programme areas include intercultural dialogue, youth opportunity, knowledge exchange, research and selected international cooperation activities.

- The MYCDIC Academy supports learning and practical capacity.
- The Journal of Strategic Studies provides a research and analysis space.

- The Global Representation Network supports accountable civil-society engagement abroad.
