About this edition

Advisory & Coordination Bodies

Expert advice, independent perspectives and coordination.

This revised reference explains the Council's public operating approach as of 4 November 2026. It is not a legal amendment, appointment instrument, government accreditation, audit certification, or a replacement for an independently authenticated source. Earlier digitally signed files remain available as historical editions.

SECTION 01

Mandate and institutional position

The Advisory Office brings structured expertise and strategic counsel to the Presidency and senior Council bodies. It supports the Presidency with non-executive advice, specialist perspectives and institutional guidance on strategic, diplomatic, legal, academic and international cooperation matters.

- The published remit is a functional description, not a delegation of public authority.
- A named officeholder is displayed only when the underlying member record and publication setting permit it.
- The Office Registry remains the source for current hierarchy and reporting lines.

SECTION 02

Reporting and collaboration

Work is coordinated through documented institutional channels. Different offices collaborate on activities within their designated responsibilities and should not duplicate authority or private records.

- Record the responsible office before launching an external activity.
- Escalate exceptional decisions to the appropriate authorising function.
- Maintain a traceable decision and follow-up record.

SECTION 03

Constituent functions

This structure supports Council governance through the relevant appointment and representation rules.

- Specialised responsibilities are assigned through the competent office.
- Public participation and advisory roles are not equivalent to executive appointment powers.

SECTION 04

Public accountability

A clear organisation chart should be useful to the public without exposing internal security controls or unpublished personal information.

- Publish accurate summaries and authorised role holders.
- Keep historical organisational editions available after substantial revisions.
- Provide a route for correcting obsolete or inaccurate public information.

SECTION 05

Document governance

This document is a public reference edition for navigation and understanding. Current offices and appointments must be checked against the live Council directories.

- The related webpage is the source for live presentation.
- Prior verified PDF editions remain unmodified as archival files.
- The new edition is not an automatic legal amendment to bylaws or appointments.
