HIS MAJESTY KING MOHAMMED VI
MAY GOD ASSIST HIM

HM the King congratulates El Amine Chentouf, London Marathon gold medal winner

HM King Mohammed VI has sent a congratulatory message to paralympic athlete El Amine Chentouf, who won, Sunday, the gold medal in the London Marathon (Paralympic), setting a new record in the event in 2hrs 24min 00sec.

HM the King expressed his heartfelt congratulations and high regard for the athlete on this sporting achievement that "enriches your track record, already bristling with trophies and medals."

The Sovereign said he was confident that "this deserved achievement that crowns your tireless efforts and high competitive spirit that you have shown throughout your career, will be a strong incentive for Moroccan athletes, especially for paralympic athletes, to persevere and win more medals at continental and global levels."
